July 2024

Charminster, Charlton Down and Stinsford

DEAR COMMUNITY,

Well, as we are currently writing this with strong wind and rain all around us, we can see that June's weather has not really sorted itself out, so we have high hopes for July!

Luckily, the weather was kind for Charminster Fete and it was a fabulous event enjoyed by many. Inside this issue is an update, with more to come in a later edition.

Also included is a fabulous story about some wonderful little ducklings and the Pet of the Month is the lovely Tiggy.

Look out for some upcoming events too. The Encore Singers are coming to St Mary's, Stinsford Fayre will be here before we know it and there is an Afternoon Tea for the Guide Dogs charity too.

Finally, there is some news about the Family Fun Day on 14th July at St Mary's First School.

STINSFORD NEWS

At last, I say, a little more sunshine, one sunny day followed by another for what appears the first time this year. The cool wind is still with us however and when in Cornwall for a few days with a constant westerly blowing in from the Atlantic, finding a secluded spot to enjoy the sun was the order and then one could truly feel those warm days around the corner. We had the opportunity to go along to the Royal Cornwall Show and how that has grown over the years into what is now a marvellous showpiece. As you can imagine a very large animal/stock interest with some very fine beasts. Well of course I visited the bee tent and was surprised to find the competition side somewhat sparse, yet any market or craft centre had their delicious honey for sale. I bought some at £7 and talking with the stall holder who was a professional beekeeper, his comment was that many of his customers thought him expensive.

The last Monday in May and the Bank Holiday brought a wonderful free afternoon concert to St Michaels. Led by Phil Humphries the International Serpentarium Dorset 2024 came along. Seven serpent players from America, Canada, Germany, Scotland, and England came together to make some amazing music. Phil who organised the players and the event narrated the performance and the programme even quoting the number of times that the instrument occurs in Hardy's novels. It was a remarkable composition of various music and very much enjoyed by all and they played to a full house. See photograph below.

The first Sunday in June then followed the annual Thomas Hardy Birthday service and wreath laying. The Rev. Canon Richard Franklin, formerly of Trinity Church, Weymouth led the Service, and his sermon was truly excellent. As the service was from the Book of Common Prayer, he commented that this would have been precisely what Hardy himself would have heard each Sunday. A wonderful service and a truly excellent sermon from a man who has also written the book 'Thomas Hardy and Religion'. The service and wreath laying with Hardy's poignant poetry being read was enjoyed by all whether a Hardy fan or not. We had a visiting organist, Ben Maton, from Salisbury Cathedral for the event as our own Alastair Simpson had another commitment. Ben would like to visit again as he wishes to make a u-tube version of music from a collection of Dorset churches and Stinsford's organ is unusual as it is a single manual, but he stated it produces a wonderful sound in that small space.

WI REPORTS FOR APRIL & MAY 2024

April was our Annual Meeting where the committee were re-elected, with the exception of Judy Thompson who is voluntarily standing down after many years service as a committee member, President and formerly Treasurer. Mary Hayes was elected as our new President.

Once the business was concluded, Mary showed members how to make a fabric tulip and everyone was pleased to take their handcrafted flower home with them.

In May we welcomed Jane Chapman as our speaker. Jane is a local, very talented illustrator and author of children's books. Her books are well-known and are in schools all around the country. Her books, especially the 'bear' series, are very popular and sell well, especially in America. We were privileged to see original ideas, sketches and illustrations – they are really beautiful – traditional images, beautifully painted, that appeal to young children and grandmas! The books sell particularly well to grandparents apparently!

Members were handed their programme of speakers and events for 2024/5. Once more we welcomed several new members and visitors to swell our numbers. You are welcome to come along and join us – visitors pay just £3 per meeting and are allowed to attend three meetings before making a decision whether to become a fully paid member. We meet at the Community Hall on the second Tuesday of each month. Doors are open from 7pm, with the meeting starting promptly at 7.30pm. Next month (11th June) Helen Baggott will be our speaker. Her talk is 'Travels with my (great, great) Aunt' which comes highly recommended.

WI REPORT FOR JUNE 2024

Members were pleased that the WI refreshments at the Fete raised over £900 – an excellent effort by all those involved. It is a massive undertaking to organise this every year, and there is a lot of hard work on the day and in advance by a small group of ladies. Special thanks go to Judy Thompson for her efficient organisation!

On 11th June our speaker should have been Helen Baggott, author. Unfortunately, she had mixed up her dates and we were left without a speaker! Quick thinking and reorganisation of the evening, meant that we had a fun quiz – many thanks to Gloria.

Our next meeting is on 7th July and will be a talk about Weymouth Lifeboat Station and the RNLI. I will be contacting the speaker in advance, and double-checking on the day, to make sure there's no mix-up this time!

It's been lovely to see lots of new members and visitors over the past few months. If you would like to come along to a meeting, you will be made most welcome. You can get in touch (contact details elsewhere in the Pilot) if you feel unsure about attending for the first time on your own.

Our August meeting is a garden party, so the next meeting in the Community Hall will be on 10th September, 7.15pm for 7.30pm start (Hall open from 7pm).

PROBUS CLUB OF DORCHESTER

The Probus meeting in May was held, as usual, at the Gamekeeper in Charminster and the guest speaker was Peter Fry who gave a fascinating talk on his role as a volunteer at the 2012 Olympics.

Peter reminded us that the modern day Olympics have their origin in 1850 with the first real event taking place in Athens in 1896. London has been the holder on three occasions, in 1908 replacing Rome due to a Vesuvius eruption, 1948 after the Second World War and 2012.

He participated in a programme of volunteer selection that was started in 2011 and those successful were all fitted out in the event clothing. Peter was one of the torch holders as it moved through Weymouth prior to the start of the sailing events. He continued his volunteer role throughout both events and presented many pictures of the contestants in Weymouth.

Those of us who went to any events will remember how it infected the whole country and what a great success we, as a nation, had made of both the Olympics and Paralympics.

It was a really interesting talk and Peter asked us to pay his fee to the charity Action Medical.

Probus Club of Dorchester is part of the international Probus Organisation and is a group of retired or semi-retired men who meet on the second Thursday of each month for lunch at the Gamekeeper in Charminster. At many of the meetings we have guest speakers and a wide range of topics are covered. We are keen to welcome new members and if you are interested in coming along please in the first instance contact either Bill Lowes at williamlowes167@btinternet.com or Chris Hutton-Penman at chris@ossl.biz or on 01305 753611.

DORCHESTER TREFOIL

We've had a busy month again! A further 30 blankets, 30 shawls, 18 twiddlemuffs and 6 knitted animals were taken to Dorchester County Hospital for the Stroke, Mary Anning and Evershot wards. In the picture you can see Fiona Bevin and Chris White (from Charminster), Louisa Plant and Angela Goldsworthy. Angela is currently chair of Dorchester Trefoil, Louisa is our new DCH liaison person and Fiona and Chris are 'friends of Trefoil' – ie not members but are part of our knitting project because they believe in it.

Donated wool is always needed, 8" squares too (to make into 40" by 48" approx. blankets) and if you would like to knit a shawl please do – I can give you dimensions if you contact me. Details below.

Our Quiz for Foxie's Future in Charminster Community Hall seemed to go well. Thanks for all your support. Our raffle raised £143 for the charitable trust hoping to buy Foxlease – the Girlguiding activity centre in the New Forest – so that it can continue to be run as a camping and activity centre for all young people, as well as a training centre. The teams included Mary's Mates from Charminster WI (Mary Hayes is Charminster WI's new President) and Charminster Gang (Charminster's Guiders) as well as two teams from Dorchester Trefoil and some from Weymouth, Sherborne, Poole and Beaminster. Weymouth's Wise Owls won the quiz and Sherborne was second. Thanks to Linda Scott and Maggie Mallon for all their hard work setting questions and obtaining good raffle prizes. My role was caterer.

We've learned a lot – it took me and my helper so long to plate up 60 Ploughman's suppers that supper was late so the balance of the evening was upset so next year I'm going to do most of the preparation at home so we've just to put it on plates and portion up desserts. Yes – we've had so many lovely comments, we've decided to have another quiz next year.

Anyone over the age of 18 who supports Guiding, Scouting and the community can join Trefoil. Our afternoon group tends to have speakers or quieter activities and the Hardy Perennials (evening group) have all sorts of more activities for example a Dorchester History walk (June), a boat trip (July) barbecue (August). Both our groups are very sociable and welcome visitors.

If you would like further information just contact me on: jct19336@gmail.com or 01305 263783.

Future sessions will feature educational talks and dementia-friendly activities, such as music therapy sessions.

Becky Green, Home Manager, also commented. "We're grateful for the support from Alzheimer's Society representatives, Mel Matthews and Jim Matthews, who will regularly attend the café to offer guidance and assistance."

CHARLTON DOWN CRICKET CLUB

Writing this at the start of June, it feels like the season is starting to take shape for Charlton Down's cricketers. After a soggy start we've now had a fair bit of cricket and the fortunes of our various teams are starting to unfold. Things look a bit different to recent years too. Our Saturday 1s, who usually win everything in May and not much thereafter have had to wait until 1st June to register their first win of the season and currently lurk near the bottom of Division 2 in the Dorset Cricket League. The Evening 1s who found wins very hard to come by last year have currently won 3 of their 4 games and sit pretty at the top of Division 1 in the Evening League. The Saturday 2s have had one win from four, but lost two very close games that could have gone either way. Special mentions for two of our youngsters. Ernie Darcy became the club's youngest ever player to take 5 wickets in a match and Danny Stephens whose excellent wicket keeping and batting in the 2nds have earned him a (hopefully regular) spot in the 1sts. The Evening 2s have two wins from six, but that is enough for a respectable 3rd place in Division 3 of the Evening League. Much of the youth cricket has fallen foul of the weather so I'll provide a full report next time round.

Two club players have recently got married (controversially inside the cricket season) and this has led to a couple of mad, after-match dashes to get to the wedding reception. Many thanks to Yvette Roles for driving the minibus to Surrey and for Sherborne 2s and Dorchester 3s for agreeing to an early start time. Massive congratulations to Matt & Robin Stevens and Jack & Beth James – now you can start concentrating on the cricket again!

Socially, we'll be screening all the big games as the Euros football comes to its conclusion in mid-July. More excitingly, Gin Night makes its return on Friday 12th July with Social Sec Rachel sharing some of her favourite finds since the last time. As well as our regular Thursday coffee mornings, on Saturday 6th July there will be coffee and cake available at the club from 10.30 to 12.30. Many thanks to Christine Tucker and the Charlton Down Coffee Club for organising this fundraiser for the club. Quiz Night and the monthly draw will be on Friday 26th July, amid worrying rumours that quizmaster SiD is unavailable and therefore the job will fall upon his reluctant deputy (me). Details of all upcoming events will be put out on our Socials and notice boards.

DUCKLING RESCUE

Ever had to launch an emergency duckling rescue mission?

It's a yearly occurrence for us since our 2020 move to a new home with a big rural pond on the edge of Charminster. This year we were delighted one April morning to see Mummy Mallard proudly quacking round 15 ducklings. 'Better watch out for the heron', I said looking from the bedroom window. 'Oh no, it's stalking already'.

So the first duckling safeguarding patrol was in nightie and wellies, later with my big orange coat on, warding off a very persistent and bold heron, and even a hunting buzzard perched repeatedly in a tree overhanging the water. Sadly something did dine on one of the newly hatched, leaving a rather sad pile of tiny feathers.

But next morning she still had 14 fluff balls .. for about an hour and then when we checked, to our horror, she was down to just two.

'You don't think she's led them across the cattle grid again do you', said wise hubby. This cattle grid at our gateway in arable fields, miles from any cattle, is supposed to keep the deer out of the garden and away from our roses. This cattle grid which, our nature-cam and missing rosebuds show, the deer either leap over in one bound or pick their way round deftly. One day we'll work out a better deer exclusion system.

Meanwhile ducklings beware. Sure enough, there was a cacophonous cheeping from beneath the bars, which are spaced too narrowly for a hand to descend. Despite their inexperience of life and their tender age, to a duckling they fell silent when our shadows loomed over them. But we could detect their moving position by their scurrying as one, from one end of their concrete cell to the other.

It's a fishing net operation - one big one carefully threaded through the bars and another small beach fishing net to guide them into the larger one. Then a careful and gentle ascension through the bars, into a bucket and back to Mum who's murmuring quack makes them fair fly over the surface of the water to her outstretched wings, cheeping their heads off.

The last netful yielded 5 bright eyed babies, numbers 8-12, job done. But one was a fighter and struggled out of my hand between net and bucket, and into the crook of my elbow. No matter: Hubby to the rescue, except this little fighter put up another wriggling objection and between us we lost hold and it fell down, between the bars and into the gloom again.

It's one thing getting a bunch of ducklings who want to huddle together into a net, and quite another thing to persuade one alone that capture is in its best interest. It took so long that we began, I'm ashamed to say, to wonder if this was a task too impossible to fulfil and whether having rescued 11 of the 12 that had been lost we'd done our bit. But thankfully before we left it to its doom, by some small miracle it accidentally scrambled into the net and on its journey back to mum. Oh happy day; we called it 'the duckling of great price'.

The next task for us each year is to lay a huge dust sheet over the cattle grid and weight it down. Mummy Mallard only stays with us for about 48 hours. There must be nourishment down on the chalk stream that we can't provide. She only has to cross the Old Sherborne Road :-\

No wonder she has to hatch 15 to start with.

There's another female on the pond already and about five desperate drakes harassing her so the dust sheet is still at the ready for the first sign of more ducklings.

Pet of the Month ...

Tiggy has lots of friends on his daily walks in charminster, is constantly on squirrel patrol and generally loves life, as this picture illustrates!

He's going to be 3 years old in July.

Our 'Spectacular' family fun day is returning once again for a day filled with fun and excitement! Each year we raise the stakes to create an even bigger, more elaborate, fun day than ever before, and this year is set to be our most fantastic yet!

We will have live music from the amazing Koast, setting us a wonderful atmosphere throughout the whole day, along with some exciting dance shows from 'Twirl Academy' and 'The Dance studio' we also have an exciting appearance from the one and only 'Strawberry jam' who never fails to entertain the children and get them laughing!

Our Fabulous Forest school area will also be open, where children (and adults) can toast marshmallows on the open fire, make clay models and decorate their own pebbles to take home as a reminder of your amazing day.

We will have a fire engine, digger, tractor and an amazing sports car arriving on the day, all making for wonderful photo opportunities with family and friends.

For the fearless amongst you, why not visit our animal area, supplied by 'The Ranch, Weymouth' They will have Burmese pythons, corn snakes. Sand boa. Blue tongued skink. Bearded dragon, iguanas, tortoise, along with goats, who can all be fed and stroked.

Geared towards the adventurous, and to tire the children out, we have bungee trampolines, inflatable slide and bouncy castle.

If all that wasn't enough, we have a great variation of stalls joining us on the day, from crafts, photography, wildlife, games, etc.

If after all the excitement you need to take the weight off your feet, then join us in the bar area, where you will find an abundance of hay-bales to relax on., whilst you can enjoy the many refreshments, food and ice cream we have on offer and listen to the live music.

You will also have the opportunity to purchase raffle tickets on the day and be in with a chance of winning A £50 Hall and woodhouse voucher, £50 Amazon voucher,

Family tickets to Lulworth castle, nothe fort, farmer palmers and abbotsbury swannery,

3 months gym membership to anytime fitness

Fully installed home intruder alarm,

Swim vouchers for freshwater, £200 Brittany ferries voucher,

Flip out vouchers,

Family travel voucher on swanage railway,

The Dorset Golf and Country club voucher, plus many, many more prizes.

We know that you will most certainly have a fantastic day out, making memories that will last you a lifetime.

So...join us on Sunday 14th July 12pm to 5pm free entry for all, to help us make the day a 'spectacular success!'
